

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's do not call law. It has been a relief to eat dinner without the interruption of an unwanted phone call. Businesses can advertise in many ways, and do not need to intrude in our home lives.